

How to Join a PASS Local Group

Step 1 - Navigate to PASS.org

Step 2 - Sign in or Register as a PASS Member

If you are already an official PASS Member, sign in with your PASS username and password.

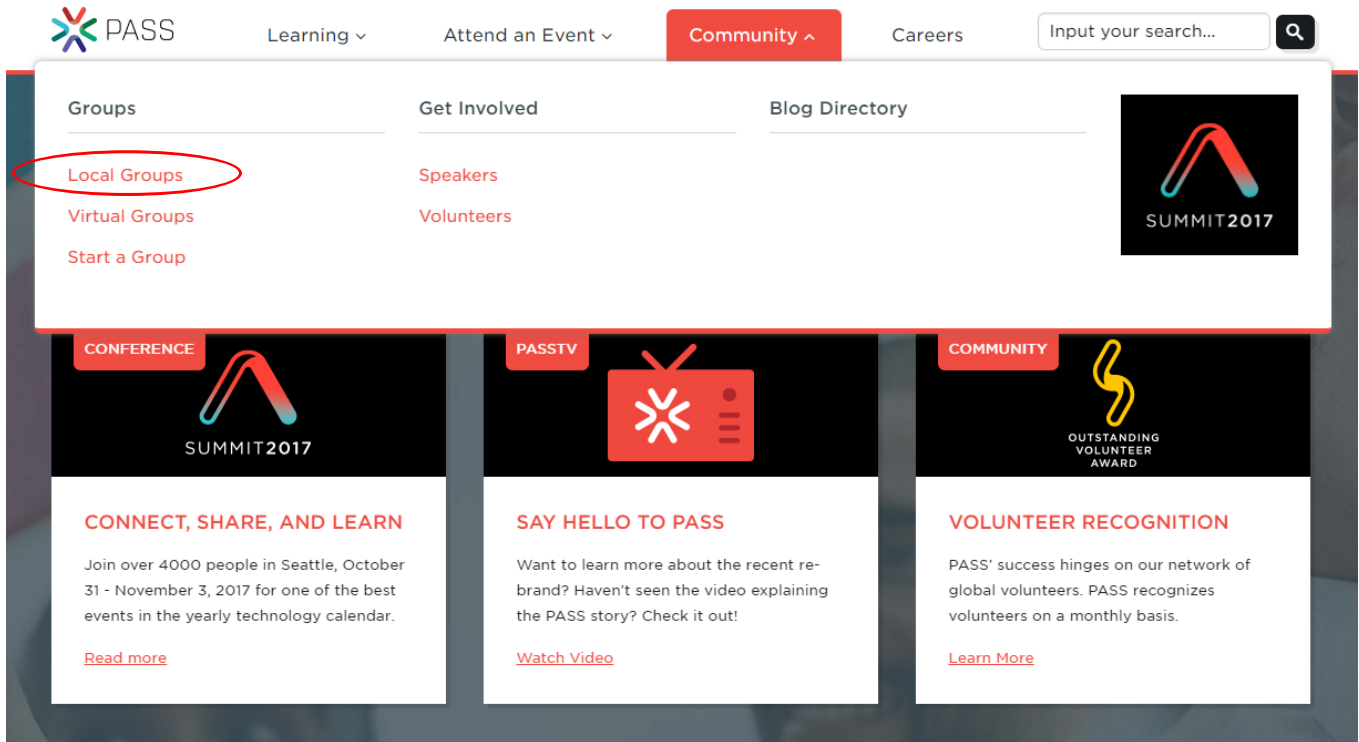

If you are not yet an official PASS Member, click the Sign Up for Free button in the top right hand corner.

Step 3 - Complete all fields of the PASS Member Registration Form

A screenshot of the "PASS Member Registration" form. The form has a header with the PASS logo and navigation links. Below the header is a progress bar with three steps: 1 PROFILE (highlighted in teal), 2 PERSONAL INFO, and 3 INTERESTS. A note states "Fields marked with * are mandatory." Below this is a warning: "The email address you select now will become your new username when logging into any PASS-related sites in the future." The form contains several input fields: "First Name *", "Middle Name", "Last Name *", "Email Address *", "Password * (Minimum 8 characters)", and "Confirm Password *". A teal "NEXT →" button is located at the bottom right of the form.

Step 4 – Navigate to the Local Groups Page

Step 5 – Find the Local Group in your area, using the search tool

Local Groups (formerly "Local Chapters") are a free and easily accessible resource for sharing knowledge, and connecting with other data professionals in your geographical area.

They also form your in-person connection to the PASS community. Local Groups meet regularly in communities around the world. Each Group has its own style, leadership, and schedule to meet members' needs. With over 300 Local Groups worldwide (and growing), there's likely a Group in your area.

To locate a Local Group of interest, please use the search functionality below to narrow your search by geography or keyword.

Start your search by selecting a global region and/or a sub region then click the 'Search' button. You can further filter your result by entering a keyword.
